Delaney Consulting, LLC Launches “Excellence in Accounting and Finance” Awards

Annual awards recognize Accounting and Finance Leaders of tomorrow

ATLANTA, Georgia (01 December 2009): Delaney Consulting, LLC (Delaney™), global financial and executive services specialists, today announced the launch of the “Excellence in Accounting and Finance” award, which will recognize two accounting and finance professionals from the Metro Atlanta area who exemplify ethics and excellence in their profession and demonstrate exceptional skill, teamwork, and the advancement and application of technical accounting/ finance knowledge and success/growth in their career.

Lorraine Chilvers, CEO of Delaney, commented, “Delaney is delighted to honor those Atlanta-area career professionals in accounting and finance who go the extra mile, not only to advance their careers, but in doing so, exhibit their desire to learn new aspects of strategy for the financial function and thereby demonstrate an ability to generate value to their business.”

Two awards will be presented, one for a professional from small to mid-sized firm (under $500 million) and one from a large firm (over $500 million). Nominations for the awards will be judged by a panel of astute professionals representing commerce, industry and educational fields. The award ceremony will take place at the Delaney Launch Party on December 10, 2009 at City Club of Buckhead. Chief Financial Officers and Executives from Atlanta’s top ten banks, law firms, accounting firms, financial planning firms, technology/software companies, private equity firms and business schools have been invited to nominate their top performers.
